Re: Professional Rules of Conduct, Rule 8.4(g)

Honorable members of the Court

Concerning the rule change under consideration; please don't do it! This is such an obvious attempt by one group to shut their perceived opposition up it is almost unbelievable. The state licenses attorneys, but it also licenses a multitude of other professions. If we are to say today that an attorney cannot practice in this state if he or she says this outlawed thing, what is to stop the state from withholding a license from a barber for holding the same beliefs and expressing them? Nothing! Please, see this for what it is and do not allow it.

Thank you so much for your time.

Sincerely,

Jacquelyne Hays
